

UNDERSTANDING GRIEVING CHILDREN & YOUTH SURVEY RESULTS 2017

In collaboration with

44 respondents total,
91% of whom had experienced illness, death, or grief in their family.

Only 18% felt they had sufficient knowledge, language or understanding of the needs of grieving children and youth.

Participants requested a number of web-based educational tools including:

Downloadable
Tipsheets

70%

Pre-recorded
Webinars

54%

Videos

50%

Podcasts

45%

Live Web
Discussions

30%

As well as a number of other formats, including:

1/2 to Full
Day Courses

56%

Family Day
Events

49%

Hardcopy
Brochures

49%

Multi-Day
Courses

19%

Almost everyone wanted to know more about talking to grieving children and youth: WHAT to say, HOW and WHEN to say it.

At the Children & Youth Grief Network, our mission is to ensure that all children have access to accurate information and well-informed support when they are grieving.

Visit our website:
www.childrenandyouthgriefnetwork.com

Or connect with us:

Children and Youth
Grief Network

@c_grief